What Is Drifting?

Drifting is a motorsport that takes place in high powered rear wheel drive cars. It is hugely popular in Japan and the United States and is fast growing in the UK. Drift One is an active promoter of the sport, running competitions every month at Buxton Raceway. You can come and spectate and even take a passenger ride in a championship car.

But why not get involved...

We hold drifting lessons every month throughout the season at the famous Oulton Park motor racing circuit set in the Cheshire countryside. This excellent facility is both safe enough for beginners and technical for the experienced to hone their skills.

This Drift driving experience is a hugely popular activity. Drifting is an exhilarating thrill. You receive expert tuition as you launch your drift car side ways through the corners, controlling the throttle to keep the wheels spinning and hold the car sideways through the corner. Your instructor will teach you where you need to start turning, how to control a slide round a corner and how to use the handbrake to set you into a slide!

After your drifting session you then get to jump into the passenger seat and hold on as you're taken for an expert driven ride with your instructor!

Our Instructors

Our highly experienced instructors will help you get the most out of your powerful drift car. This means that even people with no experience at all can very quickly learn the art of skid control and power slides. Unlike other driving experiences we don't restrict our cars enabling you to have the best possible experience. Around 2,500 people drove our cars last year, come and join in the fun!

Any drifting experience bought for this Christmas will come with two FREE spectator passes for any event at Buxton 2012. This FREE gift has a value of £30. Click on the following experiences for more information.
